

Decisions from the Minnesota Supreme Court and the Minnesota Court of Appeals (referred to collectively as the appellate courts) may be accessed through the Minnesota State Law Library web page. The link for these opinions is <http://www.lawlibrary.state.mn.us/archive/>. This page provides access to appellate court opinions from 1996 until the present day. The screen print below is specific to appellate court decisions. To access the full text of the opinion, the easiest and fastest way to find your case is to search using the date the opinion was issued and at least one party name. For example, for the December 2003 case involving the Anoka-Hennepin School District and Education Minnesota, click on “Court of Appeals Opinions, Index by Release Date”.

The following screen will appear:

Click on December 2003.

If you know the exact date the opinion was issued, scroll down to that date and find your case. If you do not have an exact date, you can simply scroll through all the cases from that time period to find yours.
